

8. New Business

---

- b. Staff would like the Planning Commission to identify which part of the Comprehensive Plan they would like to begin with for review. If there is a particular section the Commission would like to begin with, or a particular topic to start with that is where we will begin. The best plan would be to set a tentative schedule for review of this document.