

MY PROFESSIONAL CONSTITUTION

MISSION STATEMENT

My mission is to be a diligent and productive Steward, building a thriving community upon the pillars of Justice, Truth, and Peace. I strive to be faithful, righteous, and honorable in all my endeavors as I inspire, uplift, and serve others.

To this end, I am resolved to follow these Guiding Principles:

1. On Honor and Integrity

Honesty and integrity in thought, word, and deed shall govern all our interactions. We will uphold the highest standards in our conduct. We will be thorough in our examination of facts and impeccable with our word. We will hold the honor of our family, partners, employees, and consultants as dear as our own.

2. On Excellence and Diligence

Excellence shall be the hallmark of our endeavors. We will plan with great care, budget wisely, and implement with precision. We will be uncompromising in our fiduciary responsibilities at every moment.

3. On Kindness and Empathy

We will carry ourselves with abounding kindness at all times. We will reject retaliation, exercise moral courage, maintain composure, and oppose malice. We will listen with an empathetic ear to our fellow man, building understanding and trust.

4. On Justice and Responsibility

We will be fair and impartial in our judgments, always mindful of the needs and perspectives of others. Responsibility shall be our imperative, binding our obligations to others with our commitment to our own ideals.

Call to Action

The work before us is plentiful, and the day is short. If not now, when? The time to act is Now.
